

PRESS RELEASE

The Distinguished Flying Cross Society Hosts Biennial Reunion

“Celebrating 100 Years of American Air Power - WWII and Korean War recipients to be honored at event.

San Diego, May 15th:

The Distinguished Flying Cross Society will host its' biennial convention in Dayton/Fairborn, OH from September 15th thru 19th, 2019. The theme of the convention will be “Celebrating 100 Years of American Air Power.” WWII and Korean War recipients will be honored at event, and appropriate honors will be rendered for their achievements at the gala. A robust series of activities are planned and further details may be found at www.dfcsociety.net

ABBREVIATED: The Distinguished Flying Cross Society, 2019 Reunion, “Celebrating 100 Years of American Air Power,” Dayton/Fairborn, OH, September 15th thru 19th, 2019.

POC: Warren Eastman, weastman@dfcsociety.org, PH: 760-985-2810

"The Distinguished Flying Cross Society", is a non-profit organization incorporated in the State of California and qualified as a 501(c) (19) war veteran's organization under the Internal Revenue Code. The Distinguished Flying Cross Society is founded on fraternity and fellowship among military flyers, past and present - of all five United States armed services and of all ranks who have been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.